VORREDE.

Die Inschriften von Nabuchodonosor waren seit dem Beginne der Assyriologie wiederholt Gegenstand eingehender Untersuchungen fast aller Assyriologen. Eine sehr genaue und übersichtliche Zusammenstellung aller betreffenden Arbeiten findet sich in dem häufig benützten aber selten genügend anerkannten Werke von Dr. C. Bezold „Kurzgefasster Ueberblick über die babylonisch-assyrische Literatur", Leipzig 1886, Seite 126—135, wozu die bibliographischen Angaben in der Zeitschrift für Assyriologie noch Nachträge liefern. Der neueste Bearbeiter dieser Inschriften, Rev. C. J. Ball in den Proceedings of the Society of Biblical Archaeology hat das Verständniss derselben nicht weiter gefördert, da er nur zu oft absichtlich die Arbeiten seiner Vorgänger unberücksichtigt lässt, aber doch durch gelegentliche Bemerkungen verräth, dass ihm dieselben nicht gänzlich unbekannt waren.

Die vorliegende Sammlung von 460 Privaturkunden aus der Zeit von Nabuchodonosor erweitert das bis jetzt bekannte Material nicht unbedeutend; vollständig und abschliessend kann aber eine solche Sammlung noch nicht sein, bevor nicht alle Sammlungen des Britischen Museums und anderer Museen genau durchforscht sind. Erst wenn alle Texte dem Studium zugänglich sind, wird es möglich sein eine wissenschaftliche Bearbeitung derselben zu beginnen. Hier werden Inschriften gegeben aus 29 verschiedenen Sammlungen des Britischen Museums, die aus 38 verschiedenen Städten Babyloniens stammen, in denen wir mit 179 Schreibern und mit 588 Zeugen bekannt werden. Dieselben zeigen uns das gewöhnliche Verkehrsleben zur Blüthezeit des babylonischen Reiches und liefern somit einen nicht zu verachtenden Beitrag zur genaueren Kenntniss der Kulturgeschichte des alten Orientes. Freilich werden von manchen Gelehrten diese Privaturkunden aus der alten Zeit für gänzlich werthlos gehalten, und wirklich sind manche, einzeln genommen, von geringem Interesse für uns, solange wir nicht die nähern Verhältnisse der betreffenden Personen kennen, aber es ist doch zu befürchten, dass nur die Unkenntniss der Schrift und die Unterschätzung der grossen Anzahl derselben Anlass zu solchen abfälligen Aeusserungen bietet. Durch die gediegenen Vorarbeiten von Prof. Oppert und Dr. Peiser wird allmählig das Verständniss und die Bedeutung derselben erschlossen, und die Wichtigkeit dieser Inschriften aus einer Zeit, von der wir sonst wenig Denkmäler haben, wird nach und nach allgemein anerkannt werden.

Die Sammlung vorliegender Inschriften, wenn dieselbe auch unansehnlich scheint, war mit nicht geringen Schwierigkeiten verbunden. Dieselbe war vor 10 Jahren begonnen, da aber während dieser Zeit die Anordnung der Sammlungen im Britischen Museum häufig geändert wurde, so war es oft unmöglich, eine Inschrift zur Collation wieder zu finden, und die Hoffnung auf Vollständigkeit musste bald aufgegeben werden. Erst jetzt ist es den Bemühungen von Mr. Le Page Renouf und seines Assistenten Mr. E. W. Budge gelungen, die meisten Sammlungen in Ordnung zu bringen, und es ist nicht unwahrscheinlich, dass noch ein bedeutender Nachtrag sich auffinden liesse. Doch auch in dieser Unvollständigkeit wird diese Textausgabe nicht ohne Nutzen sein, da es leichter ist zu ergänzen als zu beginnen. Auf weitere Ausführungen über den gegenwärtigen Stand der Assyriologie brauche ich hier um so weniger einzugehen, da ja S. A. Smith im dritten Hefte seiner Keilschrifttexte Assurbanipal's darüber merkwürdige Aufschlüsse bringt, die allgemein bekannt zu werden verdienen.

Zum Schlusse spreche ich den Herren Le Page Renouf, Keeper of the Department of Egyptian and Assyrian Antiquities, und seinen Assistenten Mr. E. W. Budge und B. Evetts meinen innigsten Dank aus für die Freundlichkeit, mit der sie mir die hier publicirten Texte zur Verfügung gestellt haben. Auch Herrn Dr. C. Bezold bin ich zum Danke verpflichtet für die freundliche Durchsicht der Indices.

London, Juli 1889.
